

Exercise 3.4

Translate into English. If a sentence could mean more than one thing, say so.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1. fēminae filiās amant. | 6. ancillās rēginae laudant. |
| 2. ancillās rēgina vocat. | 7. nautae hastās portant. |
| 3. agricolae nautis hastās dant. | 8. agricolārum filiae festinant. |
| 4. agricolae, puella cantat. | 9. patriam nōn amant. |
| 5. fābulam* poētae nārrant*. | 10. nautae insulam habitant. |

*fābula = story; nārrō = I tell – both nice words that you will meet again in Book 2.
